WILL MEET THE SENIORS.

Mr. Ehrman Ready to Arrange Studies—School News.

Mr. Ehrman will meet all seniors who wish to make changes or take up new studies in their course for the next semester, next Thursday from 2:30 to 5 p. m. The juniors can see him the same hours next Wednesday. Each pupil must take four studies unless other arrangements are made that are necessary.

During the singing hour this morning, Mr. Hayward will meet the boys who intend to try for the track team. They will begin active practice Friday afternoon. Jennie's hall will probably be secured for one day each week until out door practice can begin.

Bids for the class pins have been received and will be awarded Jan. 21. Young Inventor.

Walter Van Guilder gave several illustrations of the workings of wireless telegraphy to the classes in physics yesterday. Mr. Van Guilder is a student in the high school and has made a study of wireless telegraphy. He has apparatus by which he can send messages several miles. Nearly all the apparatus has been constructed by Mr. Van Guilder himself.

Miss Marie Mooney will give a bob sled party to a few of her friends tonight.

Harry Crea attended a bob sled party at Warrensburg Wednesday night. The final examinations will be held Thursday and Friday next week. Every pupil will be required to take the examinations.

There will be several changes in the course of study in the high school next semester. A class in commercial arithmetic will be organized and all that can be urged to take it. Only juniors and seniors can take the study. There will also be a class in advanced algebra. All those that intend to go to college will need this study as all that have attended college from the high school find themselves deficient in mathematics. This seems to be true of all the schools and a great deal of complaint has been made by the different universities that the students have not received the necessary training in mathematics and especially algebra.

BELL CONSECRATION SERVICE.

At St. Patrick's Catholic Church May Be Postponed.

The services to consecrate the new bell purchased by St. Patrick's congregation for the church, which were to have been held next Sunday may be postponed on account of the breaking of one of the standards of the bell by the railroad company. Rev. Father Heffernan, one of the most eloquent speakers of the diocese was to make the dedicatory address and the members of the congregation are looking forward to the service with great interest.

The bell is five feet in diameter and weighs 3700 pounds. It is one of the largest and most expensive bells ever bought in the city. For over a year the sound of the Angelus has not been heard and many people have wondered why. The old bell, which has a history longer than the street car system, was cracked one frosty morning and funerals and weddings have entered the church untended. For the last three months Rev. Father Loughney, assistant to Rev. Dean Murphy, has been making a canvass of the young people of the congregation and has about 1000 subscribed for the bell.

On account of their generous donations they will take no small part in the services of the consecration.

PROBABLY FROM BOODY.

Mrs. O. N. Ford is a Victim of Small Pox.

The wife of G. N. Ford, a laborer, living at the corner of Oakland and Forest avenues, has broken out with small pox. Recently the Ford family entertained some friends from the neighborhood of Boody and the friends were at that time broken out with what was diagnosed by the Boody practitioners as chicken pox. As a pretty extensive epidemic of small pox has been located in and about Boody it seems probable that the visitors brought the contagion with them. The Ford residence has been quarantined and it is hoped that no others have been exposed.

FUNERALS.

Henry Laughlin. The funeral of the late Henry Laughlin was held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the family residence three miles east of Decatur. The service was conducted by the pastor of the Dunkard church and the burial was at Greenwood cemetery.

FURNISHES PEACE BOND

Wife Was the Complainant—Batted a Fellow Hauler.

W. E. Walter was put under $100 bond to keep the peace for three months, by Justice McCoy yesterday. He gave the required bond. The case was continued from the day before and Walter's wife was the complainant.

The couple have been married nearly two years and Mrs. Walter testified that he had repeatedly abused and threatened her. His last offense occurred last Monday, when, after an absence of over a week he returned to the family home on Wabash avenue and proceeded to chase out the boarders and break the glass out of the front door with a flat iron. The whole outfit seems to be of one kind but the woman is manifestly the weaker, and so her liege lord was put under bonds to refrain from beating her up.

Tom Turner batted a fellow hauler one for running into his team while waiting their turns at the coal shaft and was later fined $3 and costs by Justice O'Mara.

ELKS' TRIP TO SPRINGFIELD.

Mark Cooper Visits Small Pox Patients and is Now Locked Up.

Mark Cooper got drunk Tuesday evening and broke the quarantine which the board of health has established on the apartments of the Wootter and Brackett families on West Wood street. Mrs. Wootter has the small pox and the Bracketts are quarantined because their apartments are practically in communication. Cooper went to visit his friends, the Bracketts, and then promenaded about town. When it was found where he had been he was arrested and locked up in the city cells. It is a hard matter to punish such an offence against the public safety because he cannot be locked up with other prisoners for fear of spreading the contagion. Justice O'Mara fined him $25 for being drunk and he will be held in the cells until such a time as he breaks out or the danger of his having the disease has passed.
